Obituary

Cheryl Annette Sims was born on June 25, 1967, to the late Robert and Nellie Sims. She attended school in Prince Edward County. Cheryl confessed her love for Christ at a young age and joined High Bridge Baptist Church where she was a faithful member until death. Cheryl has worked at Carbone of America, The Woodlands, and (ICA) Immigration Centers of America in Farmville, Virginia until she became disabled.

Cheryl was preceded in death by her father, Robert F. Sims, mother Nellie E. Sims and brother in law Lewis Hyde Sr. and aunt Phyllis Randolph. Cheryl was a dedicated mother to her two children. She leaves her love and memories with her children; Amena Sims of Farmville, Virginia and Nicholas Sims of Rice, Virginia.

Cheryl had seven siblings: Robert Sims of Marina Del Rey, California, Ricky Sims of Los Angeles, California, Apostle Dr. Verniecer Hyde of Houston, Texas, Carolyn Combs (Jerry) of San Diego, California, Lawrence Sims (Tanya) of Pikeville, North Carolina, Kimberly Harris (Howard) of Farmville, Virginia, and Donta Sims of Richmond, Virginia. Cheryl had a host of nieces and nephews that will miss her warm smile and laughter.

Cheryl first loved the lord and her family most. She was a mother, sister, aunt, and close friend to so many. She let her light shine wherever she went throughout the city; you would often see Cheryl and her mother together riding, eating, and in fellowship with others.
