Reflection of Life

Nelson Carl Jennings a.k.a. "Cool Breeze" was born October 4, 1954 in Nottoway County, Virginia to the late Albert Jennings and Mildred Jennings (Jeter). Nelson passed away September 13, 2016 at Johnston Willis Hospital. He is preceded in death by his brother Floyd Jeter. Nelson graduated from Luther H. Foster High School in 1973. He continued his education and received his License as a Master Plumber.

He was a devoted and dedicated employee at Piedmont Geriatric Hospital for 30 years.

He continued to live in Nottoway County and married Linda (Simmons) Jennings. They had two children together; Rashad O. Jennings and Kiona Monique (Jennings) Smith. He was a true New York Giants fan. He loved going fishing and going down to the race track with cousins and friends. He was a former member of the New Breed Racing club, where Nelson and his cousins devoted their time into building a racing truck, in hopes of racing the truck one day.

He leaves to cherish his memories one son, Rashad O. Jennings (Tajuanna), one daughter, Kiona Monique (Jennings) Smith (Jermaine), one Stepson, Terrance Simmons (Doreesha), two sisters, Carolyn Tucker (Ricky) and Lisa Boateng (Columbus), Seven grandchildren; former wife and lifetime friend, Linda Jennings (Simmons), a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and in-laws.
