Obituary

LIVES ARE LIKE RIVERS:
EVENTUALLY THEY GO
WHERE THEY MUST,
NOT WHERE WE WANT THEM TO.

On September 8, 2016 James H. Lewis Sr. departed his earthly life at McGuire Veteran Hospice Unit in Richmond, Virginia.

He was born in Nottoway County Virginia on December 26, 1936 to the late Frederick (Buck) and Mary Carter Lewis.

James attended Nottoway School System, and also studied at Virginia State University. Then, he served the United States Air Force for 12 years as a Sargent . He proudly served his country working with Missile defense during his tenure in the service. James was appointed by the Nottoway County Board of Supervisors. In addition he was a member of Luther H Foster Alumni Association, Nottoway Senior Citizen, Golden Agers of Nottoway, and Macedonia Baptist Church.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Lucy Helen Bland.

He leaves to cherish his memories two sisters: Thelma Norris Berkley (Crewe, VA and Martha Christine Rowe (Burkeville, Virginia). He is survived by two sons, James H. Lewis, Jr. and wife (Solonia) from Springfield, MA and Nigel G. Lewis and wife (Benita) from Mansfield, TX, uncle, nieces, nephews, cousins, grandchildren and friends.

Philippians 4:7

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds
