

Ruth S. Eggleston

March 6, 1932-November 17, 2014

Ruth S. Eggleston was called to eternal rest on Monday, November 17, 2014 at 1:20 a.m. at Johnston-Willis Hospital in Richmond after a long illness. She was the oldest child born to the union of Ulysses Grant and Fannie Scott of Amelia, Virginia. In addition to her parents, she was predeceased in death by husband Minor B. Eggleston, sisters: Pauline Mosbley and Luvenia Royal, three sons, Minor Jr, Stanley Dale, and Harold.

At an early age she professed Christ, was baptized and joined the Union Branch Baptist Church in Amelia, Virginia. She continued to serve in Church after moving to Farmville from Amelia attending First Baptist Church and Race Street Baptist in Farmville.

She graduated from the Russell Grove High School in Amelia. She raised her children and assisted her husband in his business Eggleston Cabinet Shop. In 1983 she helped Carl start the Eggleston Funeral Service in Farmville and served as Vice-President until her health failed.

Ruth was a quiet person and had a beautiful smile with a dynamic personality. Ruth was kind, caring, and compassionate.

She leaves to cherish memory: Carl (Barbara), Carolyn (John), Michael (Shelia): Three brother-in-laws, Franklin (Thelma), William (Barbara), George, Jr. (Lorraine): Two Sister-in-Laws, Linda (Alva) and Alberta: twelve grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren, one great-great grandchild and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins other relative and friend. Also Leroy Ross whom she loved like her son.

COMMONWEALTH of VIRGINIA
Office of the Governor

Terence R. McAuliffe
Governor

November 18, 2014

Mr. Carl U. Eggleston
914 South Main Street
Farmville, Virginia 23901

Dear Mr. Eggleston,

I am writing to extend my condolences to you on the passing of your mother, Ruth Scott Eggleston, a caring and compassionate citizen of the Commonwealth.

For decades, your mother cared for families in crisis throughout the Farmville community. All who knew and worked with her have testified to her generous spirit, her warm heart, and her commitment to helping others. She leaves an inspiring legacy of community service.

I hope that you will find some comfort in your fond memories of her and all that she has done for Virginia. My thoughts are with you and your family in this difficult time.

Sincerely,

Terence R. McAuliffe