

Homegoing Service

For

Berdine Williams

Sunrise –April 20, 1932

Sunset - June 7,2016

Saturday ,June 11, 2016

2:00 P.M.

Rev. Irma T. Watson, Eulogist
Pastor, Midway Baptist Church

~Obituary~

On June 7, 2016 God called home to rest Deaconess Bernadine T. Williams at the Woodland Healthcare Center in Farmville, VA. She was the daughter of the late Deacon John "Buck" and Courtney Brown Trent.

Deaconess Williams accepted Christ at an early age and joined in holy matrimony to James R. Williams on December 24, 1950 and to this union four children were born. She was preceded in death by her parents, One child , Five brothers , Three sisters and one great-grandchild.

As time passed on she moved from New Jersey where she was employed for 25 years at Fashion Sportswear and Peerless Photos where she retired from.

Upon moving back to Virginia she reinstated her membership at the Midway Baptist Church where she served faithfully on the Senior Choir, Missionary Ministry and Deaconess Ministry.

Berdine was a classy, warm-loving, beautiful women from the inside out. To know her was to love her. She always made sure that when she cam out that everything was in place , looking like a million dollars and a smile to go along with it. Every piece matching from top to bottom, from hat to shoes. She was best known for her homemade rolls, pies, rice pudding and her famous potato salad and peach cobbler. She also enjoyed reading while relaxing in her recliner.

Berdine leaves to cherish her memories, Husband of 65 years, James R. Williams, daughters, Jean Johnson (Lawrence), Carrie Williams, of Paterson, New Jersey, and Sandra Williams , Cullen, Virginia , one sister Sally Bagley, Bronx, New York, Two sister-in-laws, Mary S. James, Christine Johnson, of Paterson, NJ one aunt Edith Sims, eight grandchildren, Shonda, Taneisha, Traniece, Shamik, Kareem, Ryan, Jason, and Gianna, Six great-grandchildren, One great-grandchild, God-Daughter Tamika Dupiche, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relative and friends